LATINS CAPTURE TOWNS AS ALLY DRIVE ON ALL FRONTS IS ON

Austrians Hurl Back Along 15-Mile Front In Trentino Lunge

CZAR THRUSTS ARMIES INTO CARPATHIANS

French Gain Against Germans On West Front, Repulse Foe's Assaults

BY ED L. KEEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, June 26.—Every surface indication today pointed to the beginning of the allied offensive.

Breaking out in a terrific smash against the Austrian front, the Italians drove the Austrians back along a fifteen-mile front and recaptured seven positions, recently taken by the Austrian Crown Prince in his drive in the Trentino.

At practically the same hour that the rush began the British artillery broke loose in a battering attack on the German trenches along the La Basse canal south to the river Somme. Both the British and German statements comment on the violence of the attack. Thus far no word has reached London of the expected infantry attack.

The Russians, instead of being disheartened by the temporary check in Volhynia, are bringing immense numbers of reserves into action and have renewed their vigorous attempts to capture Kovell. In the southeast the Slavs have cleared the enemy from Bukovina and are entering the Carpathian passes.

There are some indications that Rumania plans on entering the war.

Hurl Austrians Back

ROME, June 26.—Like lightning and with a crack like that of a smashing whip, the Italians have driven the Austrians back on a fifteen-mile front in the Trentino region and have recaptured positions everywhere, including Casleghetto, Meletie, Mont Laugara, Gallio, Asiago Cesuna and Monte Cengio. These are the greatest gains since the first week of the war.

The Italians are smashing forward with the greatest vigor, taking advantage of the withdrawal of the Austrians in their attempt to stem the Russians.

The capture of many Austrian positions on a wide front was announced, supplementary to the official statement tonight. It is reported that the Italians are making amazing progress.

LONDON, June 26.—The Russians have broken through the Carpathians into Transylvania, advancing from Bukovina, advices received here today indicate.

French Gain on Germans
PARIS, June 26.—The French have made gains at Fromen and at Chencis. German attacks were repulsed, the War Office today announced.

11,061 Slavs Seized
BERLIN, June 26.—The Germans are continuing their defeat of the Russians at Sokul, the War Office today stated. Since June 16 the Germans have captured 11,000 men and sixty-one Russian officers.

PARLEY AGREED ON BY DOCK WORKERS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Striking longshoremen today agreed to meet with Henry M. White, federal arbitrator, and water front employers in an effort to end the labor troubles which have caused two deaths and crippled the commerce of the coast.

ORPET DEFENSE WILL DEPEND ON FACT TO PROVE BOY INNOCENT

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 26.—Will H. Orpet, accused of the murder of Marian Lambert, took the stand today.

Waukegan, June 26.—"This is a courtroom, and not a theatrical production, nor an experimental school of society," today said James H. Wilkerson, chief counsel for the defense of Will Orpet, in announcing in his opening statement for the defense that he would rely on cold facts to prove that Orpet was innocent.

Troop Trains Rushing to Boundary 17,000 Militia on Way in 24 Hours

THE Texas border from El Paso to Brownsville is the territory which militia ordered out by the President must protect from raiding Mexicans. The map shows the territory in Texas to be guarded, and that in Mexico over which Americans and Carranza followers will clash, if fighting takes place. Texas militiamen already encamped on the border are shown in the photographs. By tomorrow night 17,000 additional militiamen will be rushing to the boundary on troop trains.

CHEERS MINGLE WITH TEARS AS HUNDREDS GATHER AT STATION. BID COMPANY L BOYS GOOD-BYE

Co. L went away yesterday. Seventy men and three officers went away to the war, if there be war. They have gone to whatever service they are called by their country.

Hundreds of men, women and children gathered at the Santa Fe depot to see them off. Tears were shed, hands were gripped in the tenseness of saying good-bye, and as the train pulled out, the windows filled with the heads and shoulders of the departing soldiers, hats and handkerchiefs were waved and the farewell calls of the throng were responded to by the shouts of the guardsmen.

It reminded one of '98. That year a similar crowd gathered at the depot to see the boys leave. While there was not the deep excitement in every breath yesterday that there was in '98, the feeling of pride and patriotism, the sincerity of the good wishes and the honor paid to the brave boys who were going away was just as deep.

There were sixty-nine enlisted men and three officers who marched from the armory yesterday afternoon, escorted by the Stars and Stripes and twenty-six Spanish-American War veterans. They were joined at San Bernardino by another member, and two others now in the hospital will join them soon.

From the start of the march to the depot hundreds called out their greetings and farewells. The parting was one that cannot be otherwise than fill the hearts of the soldiers with the knowledge that their service to their country is deeply appreciated.

Solemn Scenes Mark Departure of Guardsmen For Sacramento

Yesterday morning at 8:25 o'clock, Capt. J. L. McBride, in command of Co. L, received orders to entrain at the Santa Fe depot at 3 o'clock. Instantly the armory became a scene of activity intensified. Orders from Sacramento were that all company property should be shipped with the company. Much of the packing had already been done, but the bedding remained to be rolled, gifts of fruit and food to be packed, and the finishing touches given to the preparations.

New Enlistments
Since the roster was published in the Register Saturday the name of one man had to be removed. A. B. Pearce was rejected by the examining physician because he was under weight. Three new enlistments were received.

They were Lambert C. Towler of Los Angeles, formerly second lieutenant of Co. L, Elmer Worthy, attorney, formerly a sergeant in a company at Palo Alto, and G. G. Hoskins. The name of F. C. Jager, known to the boys as "Slim" was not included in the list published Saturday.

John Tervooren, cook, called up on the telephone Saturday night from Ontario. He was one of the four members of the company who had not been located. Yesterday arrangements were made for him to join the company as the train passed through San Bernardino. His addition gave the company actual count of seventy-two men and three officers. The three men not located are L. E. and M. A. Bailey and W. J. Blakemore.

Among the last enlistments was that of Floyd H. Mitchell, who has had a three-year service with Co. L, retiring with the rank of sergeant. He and The Saturnina Fanny was last reported at Genoa.

Orders of Gen. Leonard Wood Meet With Instant Response In East

SACRAMENTO, June 26.—The first California troops to go to the border will be the first squadron of cavalry, with fifteen officers and 380 men. They are Troops A of Bakersfield, B of Sacramento, C of Salinas, and D of Los Angeles.

NEW YORK, June 26.—By tomorrow at the latest at least seven thousand militiamen from New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Vermont will be speeding on troop trains to the border.

General Leonard Wood's orders met with instant response.

So urgent was the demand for militia that medical examinations were waived. This brought three regiments to full war strength by a rush of recruiting in the last few days. The "green" men will be taken along, the officers anticipating training them on their arrival at the border.

Chicago San Orders

CHICAGO, June 26.—No militia command under the control of the War Department and the United States army has yet received specific orders to entrain for the border, it was announced today. These orders will come tomorrow or they may be delayed for several days.

"The organizations will be ordered to entrain as soon as they are reported reasonably ready," officers stated, "but so far none is reasonably ready."

Parents' consent is not necessary for men under 21 years desiring to enlist in the regular army.

New Jersey Troops Move
SEAGIRT, N. J., June 26.—The New Jersey infantry, cavalry and artillery and hospital and ambulance corps entrained for the border at 2 p. m. today.

17 IN CREW LAND AS ITALIAN SHIP IS SUNK

LONDON, June 26.—Lloyd's announces the sinking of the Italian vessel Saturnina Fanny of 1563 tons gross. Seventeen men were landed. The Saturnina Fanny was last reported at Genoa.

MOB RAZES U. S. CONSULATE AT TORREON

EAGLE PASS, Texas, June 26.—Led by the mayor of the town, a mob attacked and destroyed the American consulate at Torreon, Mexico, on June 18, according to American refugees arriving here today.

Shouting and yelling "Death to the gringos!" thousands stormed the building and tore down the American shield.

Sixteen Americans hurriedly escaped to the protection of the British consulate.

FLIER NILES DYING AS RESULT OF FALL

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 26.—C. F. Niles, the Rochester, N. Y., aviator, died today as the result of injuries sustained in a fall here yesterday.

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 26.—In full view of 10,000 persons whom he had just thrilled by looping the loop and flying upside down, Aviator Charles Niles of San Francisco fell from his monoplane and was probably fatally injured. His wife was among the spectators in the grandstand who witnessed the accident.

The machine was about 1000 feet in the air when the spectators saw an object drop from it. The crowd cheered at first, believing it to be a bomb, dropped at a target. Then they saw the machine leap forward a few feet and then down, gradually increasing its speed. Not until it dropped on its side was it noticed that the right wing was burning.

The machine struck the ground two miles from the exhibition grounds. The impact drove the engine three feet into the turf.

Niles' injuries are concussion of the brain and a broken clavicle. He was still unconscious late last night.

RUSH TO BORDER WITHOUT WAITING FOR EQUIPMENT, BAKER ORDER TO GUARDS

MEXICO CITY, June 26.—The foreign office today positively stated that work on the reply to Secretary Lansing's note had not yet been begun.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Leave without waiting for equipment or training of recruits, was Secretary of War Baker's order to the militia today.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—There is a possibility of war within a few hours, Senator Reed today told the senate.

Senator Reed issued a solemn warning, urging all to have a care for the families of the militiamen. A bitter debate was raised on the issue of granting fifty dollars monthly to families of the militiamen. Senator Works of California, arguing for a general draft, said:

"This is no time for caviling over terms."
"War may be declared within a few hours," shouted Reed. "We must protect our border. It is the duty of all, not merely the guardsmen. Merely because the guardsmen have prepared themselves for a fight shall we pile all the burdens of war on them? Many, torn from the arms of their wives and children, are leaving for the front, yet here we haggle and haggle over their families."

Bolivian Minister Calderon was told that mediation is not acceptable to the United States now.

Congressional leaders are prepared to receive a message from President Wilson within a few days.

Chairman Flood of the House Foreign Relations committee today told his colleagues that war with Mexico was almost a certainty.

The President notified congressional leaders that he might address Congress after President Carranza's reply.

There was a feeling that a call for volunteers might be expected unless the tension abated.

Senate and House leaders are ready and willing to take any action that President Wilson may desire.

Ministers of Paraguay and Ecuador asked Ambassador-designate Arredondo if President Carranza would accept mediation. Ambassador Arredondo replied that he was expecting instructions hourly and would transmit their offer to Mexico City.

Latin American diplomats who met Secretary Lansing this afternoon to suggest mediation between the United States and Mexico were told that everything depends on the reply of Carranza to the note sent to him by Secretary Lansing.

The senate is scheduled to pass a resolution drafting the militiamen into the National service so that they may be used on either side of the border. This was to be with the provision that men with dependents may claim exemption from this service.

For temporary military use it was decided to add $20,000,000 to the army appropriations and also to pass emergency measures for $6,000,000 more.

Capt. Morey Safe

After his desperate and courageous stand at Carrizal, Captain Lewis Sydney Morey is safe, says a report that General Pershing's field headquarters from Major Jenkins' column of the Eleventh Cavalry, which is searching the desert for survivors of the battle. Believing himself to be dying of his wounds, Captain Morey wrote a report of the battle and ordered four men, who had carried him two miles, to deliver the report to General Pershing. Captain Morey's report does not differ in any great particular from previous ones. From various sources it has been pretty fairly settled that there are fifteen men yet to be accounted for, following the Carrizal clash.

Double Blame Hinted

Double responsibility for the Carrizal battle today appeared to have been partly established. This will not, however, place much burden on the American force as to secure peace. On the contrary, developments have so shaped themselves as to make it possibly necessary for the President to appear before Congress before the week ends.

The report of Captain Morey indicated to officials that the actions of the Americans might have been provocative. Captains Morey and Boyd "formed for attack," thinking that the Mexicans would run. On the other hand, the publication of the American demands for the release of the seventeen American prisoners showed that President Carranza had issued an order to Trevino not to permit the Americans to move either east, south or west. This would place the responsibility on President Carranza, for the Mexicans' firing, and perhaps proved the necessity for Captain Boyd's offensive.

Give Carranza Chance
Persons close in touch with the President's views said that he would delay going before Congress on a war

T. R. FOR HUGHES SENDS LETTER TO 'MOOSE'

CHICAGO, June 26.—Amid riotous scenes, Bainbridge Colby of New York today placed in nomination for the Progressive president, Victor Murdock, at the meeting of the National Committee, following the committee's decision to accept Col. Roosevelt's declaration.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Theodore Roosevelt today definitely refused the nomination of the Progressives. In a letter to the Bull Moose National committee he urged their support of Charles E. Hughes. In his letter the Colonel said that he would actively support Hughes. The Colonel denounced the Democrats. He wrote:

"It is impossible for us to abandon our Progressive convictions. But we are faced with the fact that as things are the Progressives no longer offer a means whereby we can make our convictions effective."

"Under the conditions it is our duty to do the best we can and not to sulk because our leadership was rejected. In my judgment Hughes will meet the conditions set forth in the statement of the Progressive National committee last January."

"I have but one purpose to serve our common country. It is by deep conviction at this moment that we can only serve it by supporting Hughes."

Parker Bolts
CHICAGO, June 26.—John Parker, Louisiana National committeeman for six states, bolted when Colonel Roosevelt announced that he would support Hughes. Parker took this action because the committee wanted to hold a secret meeting.

DEATH CLAIMS EARL OF SANDWICH TODAY

LONDON, June 26.—The Earl of Sandwich died today.

HUNDREDS CHEER AS COMPANY L DEPARTS FOR SACRAMENTO

Spanish War Veterans March
To Station, Give Guards
Rousing Send-off

Towler re-enlisted as privates.

J. B. Collar, who is in the hospital with ptomaine poisoning, and Corporal L. F. Willis, who is in the hospital following a minor operation, will join Co. L just as soon as their physician permits them to leave.

Lunch for the Boys

Two of the busiest men at the Armory were the cooks, R. W. Morris and Lloyd Crane. Eighty jars of fruit were received from the wives, mothers, sisters and sweethearts of members of the company. These were packed for shipment.

The Bon Ton Bakery sent in a lot of pies and cakes, and another friend of the company sent two stalks of bananas. Bergman & Obarr gave some bologna sausage.

A bountiful lunch for the soldiers to be used on the way to Sacramento was prepared in the kitchen of the Armory by Mrs. Samuel Morris of Orange, who has a son and son-in-law in the company, Mrs. C. H. McElroy, Mrs. R. W. Morris, Mrs. T. C. Garnett, Mrs. Alice Frankfort, Miss Pearl Wilkins, Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Rochester, Mrs. Pease and Mrs. V. G. Manning.

March to Courthouse

Soon after 2 o'clock the bugle sounded, and the soldiers gathered in the shade of the trees of Birch Park. The order to fall in was given, and Sergeant Stearns called the roll. A big crowd had gathered to see the start from the Armory, and when the order to march was given this crowd hastened to the depot or to points along the way.

First, the company marched to the courthouse, where they formed upon the steps and had their pictures taken. Here they were met by their escort, veterans of '98.

Col. S. H. Finley was in command, assisted by W. A. Greenleaf and L. L. Vestal, who were lieutenants under Finley when he went to San Francisco as captain of Co. L in '98.

G. P. Campbell bore the beautiful silk flag that was presented in '98 to the company that went from Santa Ana. Those who were in the escort and who were members of the Co. L of '98 were S. H. Finley, W. A. Greenleaf, L. L. Vestal, G. P. Campbell, Chas. E. Bowman, Gary M. Field, Bob Northerness, James Mefford, H. M. Day, A. R. Stedman, C. E. Waffle, A. H. Sifton, O. H. Waring, A. P. Dresser, Clyde Bishop, B. E. Johnson, O. W. Hamann, Clinton Innes, M. C. Cooper, D. D. Fields and Dan D. Adams. Others who were in the escort were H. T. Reed, who was with Co. M, Fortieth U. S. V. Inf.; F. L. Morden, Co. E, Twelfth Minnesota; J. N. Perry, Co. M, Third U. S. Inf.; Tom Moher, Co. L, Seventh, N. G. C.; A. M. Davis, Battery D, California Heavy Artillery.

On the way to the depot, the company was halted in front of the Dragon, where drinks were brought out and served the boys. Cornets blew the Star Spangled Banner, as the crowd stood with bared heads.

At the Depot
Scores of automobiles and an immense crowd of people were at the Santa Fe depot when Co. L's escort, with the flag waving above the heads of the crowd appeared.

Through the dense throng and through the lines of the escort, the company reached the depot, where orders to halt and be rid of the discomforting packs were given. People jammed around the boys till one could hardly move in the crush. At that time it was expected that departure would be within a few minutes.

From the top of a box car the cornets play "Dixie," "America" and the "Star Spangled Banner." Photographers and cameramen climbed on cars, on top of the depot and upon poles, seeking points of vantage for pictures.

Time went by, and the train did not come. Word went out that the train was not to arrive until after 4 o'clock. The crush gave way, and the soldiers had opportunity to walk about and converse with their friends and relatives. Pretty little Margaret Morgan, aged 6, wearing a flag about her shoulders and waving a flag in her hand, was there to tell her brother, Ray Morgan, goodbye.

Still the train did not arrive. It was well along toward 6 o'clock before it came, and it was after 6 before the baggage, including Billy, the goat, which is the company's mascot, and which had had a part in the parade, was loaded on.

The Departure
Then came the departure. Captain McBride and Lieutenants Holderman and Ford with their men marched to the connecting tracks between the S. P. and Santa Fe, where the troop train was boarded.

From the windows of the Pullmans the boys leaned out. The steps were crowded with officers and soldiers.

With the starting of the train good cheer reigned. The long wait had been a hard strain upon the emotions of many of the men, and harder yet upon some of the mothers and wives who were being left behind.

The train began to move. Three cheers were given by the crowd. Hats were off and waving. Handkerchiefs fluttered. The boys shouted goodbye to individuals they recognized as the train pulled away. Captain McBride, a true-blue American, standing upon the steps, waved a silk flag handkerchief.

The train left the station, and Company L was gone, first to Sacramento for outfitting and drill, and then to whatever service the country sets apart for it.

IN DEPARTING, CAPT. MCBRIDE THANKS THE PEOPLE OF COUNTY

Just before entraining yesterday evening, Capt. J. L. McBride, in a statement to the people of Orange county, said:

"To the many friends of Co. L, in departing, I wish to say for myself and for the company that we deeply appreciate the many courtesies that have been extended to us during the days of our preparation for leaving. Kindly remembrances were showered upon us so rapidly in the last two days of our stay at the Armory that it has been impossible for me to thank each individual and firm who sent us things that we could not otherwise have secured. I take this way of saying that we greatly appreciate your encouragement and your splendid backing as shown by your gathering at the depot this afternoon. The tremendous send-off was an inspiration to us. The presence of the Spanish American War Veterans carrying the flag that old Co. L took into the service in '98 was another splendid inspiration. To our fellow citizens of Orange county, we say good-by. Whatever befalls us, wherever we may be sent by our country, we shall know that your hearts are with us, and we shall endeavor to more than justify your faith in us."

HE is off to the Mexican border in answer to the call from the President of the United States. She is sad because he is going. Scenes similar to this are being enacted all over the county, as the militiamen are entraining either for the border or for mobilization camps.

FLAG PRESENTATION BY ELKS TO CO. L IS MARKED BY SLOEMNITY

One of the most thrilling features of the closing hours of the stay of Company L here occurred at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening in front of Elks' hall, when a large and magnificent silk flag was presented to Captain J. L. McBride for his company by the Elks.

Before presenting the flag, Attorney Clyde Bishop in a memorable and eloquent speech, which brought tears to the eyes of many in the big crowd gathered at the club house and made mothers, fathers and sweethearts weep, quoted the oath taken by militiamen and phrase by phrase told of the potential meaning of the promise to defend the country's colors.

He paid particularly high tributes to the mothers, who, having gone down into the valley of the shadow in order to bring these men into the world, now cheerfully give them up perhaps never to see them again, in behalf of their country's honor.

The patriotic audience often greeted Mr. Bishop's remarks with applause and as Captain McBride received the Stars and Stripes with the eagle-topped staff, the crowd was visibly affected.

The long line of stalwart young men was drawn up in front of the club house, and marched proudly back to the Armory with the flag, which it is safe to say, they will never bring back stained with dishonor.

Harvey Gardner, in behalf of the Orange County Title Company, also presented Captain McBride with a beautiful silver card case, holding his Elks' membership card.

Following the flag presentation, Attorney Charles D. Swanner, by special dispensation, was initiated into the Elks, so that he might have the protection of the order during his absence.

Just one year ago, Fred W. Fuller of the Dragon, told the members of Company L that if they ever had to go to the front, he would see they got a proper "send-off." And yesterday afternoon, as the Company marched from the Armory up Fourth street on the way to the depot to entrain, they were lined up in front of the Dragon and as each man was provided with a glass of sparkling coca cola, and immediately the clarion notes of three cornets, played by Messrs. Neiman, Jacques and Matthews, in that magnificent national hymn, "The Star Spangled Banner," broke forth, tears that could not be controlled flowed unshamed from the eyes of members and officers alike and spectators wept, as the full significance of the occasion dawned upon them. The toast to the flag was then given and the company pursued its way to the train.

Propose to Raise Fund For Co. L Emergencies

It is proposed to raise a fund to be turned over to Capt. J. L. McBride for emergency use of members of Co. L. Such a fund could be drawn upon for special attentions in case of illness of men, and upon occasions that might develop emergencies that could not be met by the government.

Such a fund was raised for Co. L in '98, and when the matter of raising a fund for the Co. L of today was discussed with Col. Finley, who was entrusted with the fund for his company in '98, today, the Colonel said: "I think it would be the proper thing for the citizens of this county to raise a purse of $300 to turn over to the Captain of Co. L as an emergency fund. There will be many occasions when the comfort, health and pleasure of members of the company will require something of this kind."

In 1898 a similar purse was provided for the company and I found it of great benefit. At that time the money was not all needed owing to the fact that we did not get into foreign service and the balance was turned over to the Red Cross society upon our return.

I would suggest that the banks be requested to receive funds for this purpose. The Register starts the fund off with a contribution of $10. The Santa Ana High School Alumni Association this morning placed $10 in the fund. Contributions to the fund may be left at any of the banks or newspaper offices. Let the response be immediate, so that the fund can be forwarded to Capt. McBride within the next few days.

BILLINGS RE-ENACTS CUSTER'S LAST STAND

BILLINGS, Mont., June 26.—The fortieth anniversary of the Custer massacre, as the battle of the Little Big Horn with the Sioux Indians is called, was celebrated here yesterday with the re-enactment of the crucial point of the battle. The attack of General Custer on the Sioux Indian village and his retreat to the summit of the hill, where his "last stand" took place, were faithfully depicted by a company of veterans commanded by General E. S. Godfrey, a survivor of Custer's famous Seventh Cavalry.

General Godfrey's little command marched over Custer's trail from his last encampment on the Rosebud river. Between 2000 and 3000 Indians of various tribes awaited him on the battlefield and engaged him in the mimic attack on the village, located on the identical site of the Sioux village of forty years ago. The celebration concluded with a memorial address among graves of Custer's fallen heroes and a parade and Indian games on the Crow Reservation.

Summer Classes now being formed. Private instruction in Piano, Pipe Organ, Musical Theory, Harmony. Alan A. Revill, organist-director, First Congregational Church, Phone 753-R2.

TWO PHYSICIANS HERE SUBJECT TO CALL

Two Santa Ana physicians, Dr. F. E. Winter and Dr. J. M. Burlew, are subject to call for medical service with the United States Army. Dr. Winter has received instructions to report to General Funston, and he has done so by telegraph. Dr. Burlew has received no orders. Dr. Winter in his telegram to General Funston asked if the fact that he has one arm partly disabled as a result of an auto accident in Los Angeles will militate against his remaining in the service. He has received no answer.

Each of the physicians ranks as a first lieutenant in the Medical Reserve Corps of the United States Army. Dr. Burlew has held this commission for about eight years.

Ladies' fingers, macaroons and fancy cakes fresh daily at W. D. Baker's, 214 W. Fourth St.

MANY SIGN FOR DUTY IN HOME GUARD BEING ORGANIZED

Meeting to Be Held Tonight at City Hall; Motorcycle
Corps to Be Formed

If, in the absence of Company L, trouble of any kind should ever arise in Santa Ana, there will be a company of home guards in readiness to cope with any emergency. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning City Marshal Jerigan began the work of securing signatures of men willing to become members of a home guard organization. Already scores of names have been secured.

Addresses are taken, together with telephone numbers. A meeting is to be held at the city hall this evening and formal organization steps will be taken.

Several dozen owners of motorcycles have signified their intention of joining the home guards. Plans will also be worked out whereby, at a pre-arranged signal, those members owning automobiles will assemble at a given point with the least possible delay in order to move the company quickly to any point where it may be needed.

Following is a list of those who have signed up for the Home Guard.

Will Kneen, 1230 North Broadway; L. J. Tillotson, 412 Halesworth; J. L. Rees, 1310 East Third; Ed Yung, 718 East Fourth; Frank E. Felts, 932 East Sixth; Earl G. Kennedy, 616 West Fourth; W. P. Palmer, 120 Buffalo; Tiff W. Bear, Jesse L. Elliott, 843 Barton; G. W. Wicks, 2057 North Bush; W. L. Howell, 209 North Flower; Raymond R. Hupp, 104 Ross; J. T. Kinslow, 219 Spurgeon; W. D. Willson, 505 North Sycamore; W. M. Crane, Jr., 1505 North Sycamore; B. G. Patton, 505 North Sycamore; C. S. Kelley, 710 Spurgeon; W. T. Milton, 2345 North Spurgeon; G. P. Campbell, 518 West Sixth; R. ## SHERIFF CALLS RIFLE CLUB TO ORGANIZE A GUARD

Sheriff Jackson has issued a call for a meeting of the Santa Ana Rifle Club, of which he is president, at his office at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night. It is proposed to form a home guard company with the club members as a nucleus.

The members of the club all own their own rifles and have ammunition. The county has thirty rifles at the jail. Men who have rifles and who want to join in this home guard company will be welcomed to the meeting. Others who have no rifles will be enrolled, and, in case of trouble, they can be armed with county rifles.

The riflemen who belong to the club are all expert shots. There are about thirty members of the club.

SEVENTY P. C. OF WALNUT CROP IS PREDICTED BY BUYERS

Seventy per cent of last year's crop is the prediction of buyers who have made close estimates of this year's walnut crop. Nuts are dropping pretty freely now but not as much as they usually do at this time, because there has been no real warm spell as yet. It may be that when warm weather comes on the drop will be heavier than anticipated and in that event

THOUSANDS OF SICK WOMEN

Helped Every Year by Common Sense Suggestions Given Free by The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

For forty years women suffering from all kinds of female ills have been writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Thus they receive common sense suggestions drawn from a vast volume of experience, and thousands of sick women have been saved from untold suffering, as letters like the following clearly show:

Newark, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman. Your Sanative Wash is just the thing to overcome female weakness. I have told young mothers as well as older ones about your remedies, and what they have done for me. I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, as my health was very bad when I wrote you, but now I can do my own work and have not had a sick day since I began taking your remedies. I keep the Compound and Liver Pills on hand all the time."—Mrs. Geo. Thompson, 24 Sherwood Court, Newark, Ohio.

Why don't you write for free advice? Address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—Coinciding with the announcement yesterday that the docks and loading stages at San Pedro would be opened tomorrow, provisions were made yesterday at police headquarters to send two battalions of 100 men each to the harbor on that day.

Chief of Police Snively and Sheriff Cline held a conference this morning to decide on the best means for the protection of life and property at the harbor.

"The police and the strikers have no quarrel," said Chief Snively last night. "All we insist on is that there will be no trespassing on the rights of others. If the boys who have labor differences will follow that rule the police will not interfere."

In the meantime the police department will be recruited by more than 100 men, but none of these, according to the chief, will be sent to the harbor, only the experienced officers being selected for this task.

While the strikers stood about talking in groups yesterday at the water front, there was no disorder reported.

THE DELEGATES TO CONFERENCE AT SAN DIEGO ARE NAMED

Hot Contest Brought Out At Anaheim In the Primaries Saturday

Republicans of Anaheim defeated two old war horses in the primaries held Saturday for the election of delegates to the Republican congressional conference to be held at San Diego July 1 for the purpose of nominating a candidate to be voted upon at the primaries August 29. J. W. Duckworth, chairman of the county central committee, and Judge J. S. Howard, were the men against whom the fight was centered, and each received less than half the number of votes the three successful candidates received.

Considerable interest was manifested in the primaries Saturday and the vote registered in all the polling places was as large as was expected. The delegates were elected by supervisory districts, and voting was done by townships. The county is entitled to forty delegates.

The delegates will caucus at the courthouse tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock and all will probably go to San Diego the day before the conference, which is next Saturday.

Following are the delegates by supervisory districts:

First
W. F. Menton, Mayor A. J. Visel, T. E. Stephenson, Walter Eden, Frank Austin, C. S. Hubbard, S. M. Reinhaus, Frank P. Clarkson, Linn L. Shaw, H. H. Hossler, M. R. Hennings, R. Y. Williams, Judge Z. B. West.

Second
R. E. Larter, Wintersburg; Ed Manning and L. W. Blodgett, Huntington Beach; R. D. Richardson, Seal Beach; John Mitchell, Gardon Grove.

Third
John Kellenberger, J. A. Fay, Ed N. Cook, Anaheim; G. W. Sherwood, Gustern, C. E. Ruddock, Fullerton; Thames, Placentia; Harry Ray, Brea; Launer, La Habra; Dr. Hasson, Buena Park.

Fourth
N. T. Edwards, F. L. Ainsworth, R. W. Jones, W. O. Hart, G. D. Williamson, J. W. Morrison, D. F. Royer, all of Orange.

Fifth
George Prather and C. D. Brown, Tustin; R. B. Cook, Capistrano; H. L. Wakeham, East Newport.

In the city of Santa Ana, seventy votes were cast for each of the thirteen nominees, all of whom were elected.

In Seal Beach township, twenty-eight votes were cast for each of the following: R. E. Larter, R. D. Richardson, John Mitchell, L. W. Blodgett, Ed Manning.

Third District
Anaheim Township—Ed N. Cook 143, John Kellenberger 155, J. A. Fay 155, will be the three delegates. Votes on other delegates nominated for delegates were as follows: J. W. Duckworth, 61; P. C. Krause, 63; J. S. Howard, 56; Robt. McKee, 29; Oliver Hill, 14; F. H. Wessler, 9; Earl Dutton, 29.

Fourth District
Orange Township—N. T. Edwards, 75; F. L. Ainsworth, 54; R. W. Jones, 49; W. O. Hart, 69; G. D. Williamson, 56; J. W. Morrison, 64; D. F. Royer, 66; seven elected. Alternates: P. W. Ehlen, 34; R. A. Fuller, 33; F. J. Det-

Grocerteria Advice

Heigh Ho, the dear housewife and family man

Who try to make a dollar go as far as it can,

It never will work to save up for a day

And then on the next let things come as they may.

If we would truly live and thrive

We have to be careful three hundred and sixty-five,

And when Leap Year comes to our door

We have to figure just that much more.

If we would profit by good advice

We'd keep away from the "special price,"

It's something like fishhook and mouse traps you know,

To catch us and keep us when nibbling we go.

Let others go browsing, if that is their taste,

If they have both time and money to waste,

But let's trade at the store where prices ne'er soar,

And none are so low but they can go lower.

It seems but the natural, sensible way.

Not for service, but for quality food-stuffs to pay;

If a maid in the home is for you out of reach,

Help doesn't come less at the store or the beach.

It is cheapest and best as anyone can see,

To be trading with us at the Triangle

EX-TRAIN ROBBER, NOW MOVIE WRITER, IS VISITOR HERE

Al Jennings, famous all over the United States as a reformed train robber, was a visitor in Santa Ana yesterday at the C. K. Richards home on West Fifth street.

The details of Jennings' spectacular history are well known. He was serving a sentence in a federal prison when he was pardoned. He returned to Oklahoma, re-entered the practice of law, and has since run for governor.

Recently he has been engaged in newspaper work and in writing movie plays. In the writing of movie plays he has the assistance of Mrs. Lottie Upright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Richards, and it was partly to go over some of his plays that Jennings was here yesterday. Another purpose was that he might discuss with Mrs. Richards the staging of movie plays in which she is interested.

While here Jennings took a drive over Santa Ana. He stated that he has received an urgent call to return to Oklahoma and run for United States senator.

L. A. BOY, WOUNDED IN FRANCE, RETURNS HOME

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—Wounded several times and left on the battlefield three days among the dead and dying, are some of the experiences of George Mendes, a Los Angeles youth who has just returned from the trenches in Europe and is recuperating at his home at 2906 Second street.

Young Mendes has been dubbed by his comrades of the English army as the "luckiest soldier." This title is given because of his remarkable escapes while fighting at the front.

Yesterday Mendes exhibited his discharge with a statement of his disability and wounds and also a statement from the war ministry of England of his conduct and ability. He served twelve months with the British army in France.

KAVALA BOMBARDED, OCCUPIED BY ALLIES

CALONIKI, June 26.—The city of Poros was bombarded for four hours. In the city of Kavala there is an absolute lack of all kinds of breadstuffs and commodities.

Kavala and the Island of Thessos have been definitely occupied by the allies. They allow only certain natives to remain.

RICH UNTOUCHED BY CONTROL OF FOOD IN LAND OF KAISER

Shepherd Says Injustice Exists In Regulations of German Supplies

By William G. Shepherd, United Press Staff Correspondent.

ROTTERDAM, May 28 (by mail).—The German government is regulating the food supply for the poor but so far it has not taken in hand the control of food for the rich.

The many travelers from Germany who gave their ideas of the German food situation to me here all complained that the wonderful, scientific food conservation scheme of the Germans broke down when it came to dealing with the food of the rich.

This is why there are food riots in Germany. Injustice exists and civilians of German towns realize it.

In Line for Hours
"Poor people must stand for hours before a meat shop, providing they have five or six marks for a pound of meat," said one German I met in Rotterdam.

"Maybe the meat supply in the shop will hold out until their turn comes in the line, and maybe it won't. But rich people can hire a servant whose sole duty is to stand in the meat line every day, from 1 o'clock in the morning until the day's supply of meat for the rich man's household is secured."

"And even if the rich man's servant fails to buy meat, he and his family can always go to a hotel or restaurant and get meat on every day of the week except Tuesday and Friday."

Change Eating Places
"The authorities may frown on a household going to a restaurant every day, but there is no law against it and if the householder doesn't want to be criticised for doing this he has only to go to a different restaurant every day and his unpatriotic practice will not be noticed."

The idea seems to be growing among the middle and lower classes in Germany that the only fair way to deal with the food conservation plan is to put all civilians on a ration basis, each person being granted only a certain quantity of food every day and each individual being sure of receiving the full quantity.

No Rich and Poor
"In a war like ours," said this German, who had socialist leanings, "there ought to be no rich or poor. Everybody ought to be on the same basis and many Germans think it is monstrous that the poor should suffer more than the rich."

"We all feel that if the war goes on every person, rich and poor, ought to be supplied with a daily ration ticket. With this ticket all the food he needs for his family and the rich man will not be able to secure any more than the poor whether he eats at a hotel or at home."

It is to placate the poor and the middle classes of German towns that the government soup wagons pass through the streets.

The restaurants and rich hotels of German cities where a man with money enough had only to go and express his desires in order to have them fulfilled, became sources of irritation to German civilians.

The government therefore tried to bring restaurant conditions to the people by establishing the food wagons.

Cooking Thing of Past
In many households cooking is almost a thing of the past. Housekeepers wait for the passing of the food wagon and run out with receptacles to purchase the current meal, which usually consists of war bread and a vegetable soup.

The food wagons, however, while they may satisfy the hunger of the populace, do not, I gathered in Rotterdam, satisfy the popular demand for more justice in the distribution of food.

"Put the whole country on rations" is the solution Mr. Average Citizen in Germany offers his government.

"The riots we have been having are not so much for food as for justice and fair play in the distribution of food," explained a German from Berlin.

(The next and concluding food story from Germany will detail what articles of food are most used in Berlin.)

PRESBYTERIANS ARE TO MEET TOMORROW

The Presbytery of the district comprising Orange, San Diego and Los Angeles counties will hold its annual summer business meeting at the Presbyterian church at Fullerton tomorrow. Each church will send an elder and its minister as delegates and preparations are being made to accommodate 125 delegates.

The meeting will be opened at the church 9:30 with devotional services led by Rev. James H. Spear of Orange and the delegates will then begin the business session.

At 12:30 a chicken dinner will be served to the visitors and at 1:30 the meeting will again convene.

If you want fine cakes for any special occasion, give us your order and you will not be disappointed. W. D. Baker, 214 West Fourth St.

GOOD-BYE AND GOD-SPEED

"The Lacadaemonians do not ask, 'How many are the enemy?' but 'Where are they?'"

"Unbounded courage and compassion joined,
"Tempering each other in the victor's mind,
"Alternately proclaim him good and great,
"And make the hero and the man complete."

Company L has gone, and the Register bids them good-bye and God-speed. They are, to us, not merely soldiers—they are our own boys—our sons, brothers, husbands, fathers, sweethearts, friends; ten thousand heart-strings, attuned to faith, hope and love, will stretch taut from Santa Ana to every camp-ground or battle-field their feet may trod.

Naturally the ceremonies of departure were fraught with sadness and solemnity rather than with enthusiastic demonstrations, but the flame of patriotism burned all the brighter and hotter for its steadiness, and every heart beat strong with that highest of all courage—the courage that smiles through its tears and to which the voice of duty is the voice of God.

But the Register has no obituaries to write in this hour when the nation is calling for men. The Register knows that Santa Ana is sending men; the red blood of the true American boy flows through the veins of every boy who marched bravely away yesterday following the flag presented to the company by the Santa Ana Elks.

Many of them are the sons of soldiers of other wars; they are inspired by love of country and patriotism for the flag they have received; they do not ask for tears, nor yet for words of praise. If the conflict which is presaged by the threatening war clouds now hanging low on the firmament of peace be not averted, they will, by their valor, merit praise.

The Register bids God-speed to Santa Ana's soldier boys; they are men and they will be soldiers, and if the worst comes to worst and they must cross the border and face death, they will do it like men and soldiers.

Here's hoping that the dove of peace may yet come bearing the olive branch, but if we must become embroiled, here is an expression of our faith in the patriotism of the brave boys who will unflinchingly follow the flag wherever it may lead. May their valor and patriotism and love of country ever guide them, and may "taps" never sound over a single lifeless form in the land of the foe.

But if any of these brave boys must turn his pale face up to the stars on a foreign battlefield—

"Twilight and evening bell,
"And after that the dark!

"And may there be no sadness of farewell

"When I embark,"

Or, better still, let each of our brave boys feel assured that if farewells must be spoken ours shall be—

"Farewell! if ever fondest prayer

"For other's weal availed on high

THE FIRST JOB

A host of young fellows just out of school and college are this month for the first time drawing a regular pay envelope. No wages earned in later life, even if much larger, ever look quite as good to them as the first Saturday night payment. To many it means a financial independence of their parents of which they have long dreamed.

The agile fingers of a boy often command a range of pay quite out of proportion to what he should earn later on. A 15-year-old youngster feels mightily proud earning $1.50 a day folding circulars. He swaggers around in the leading places of the town showing his roll, and treating the girls. But let him reflect that if he were to fold circulars all his life, he would never get much more than that.

Most young men are anxious for big pay quick. They can not afford to wait. They want their automobiles now and they do not want any old-fashioned four-cylinder machines either. They are looking for shortcuts to success, and are impatient with the hard path of steady and sure progress.

THE THING FOR THEM TO CONSIDER IS NOT HOW MUCH MONEY THEY ARE GETTING FOR A START, BUT WHETHER THEY ARE IN

WHEN you put on a suit of Wilson Bros. "athletic" underwear you'll know that you are wearing the right thing for your own comfort.

These are union suits; made in many light, attractive fabrics; knee and three-quarter lengths, sleeveless and quarter sleeves.

This store offers you every good idea for spring and summer comfort. Be sure and see our new ties, shirts and hosiery.

SOME PLACE THAT IS EDUCATING THEM FOR BETTER THINGS LATER ON.

In many employments requiring the finer discriminations, the new man is practically useless for a year or two. He may be paid a little something to encourage him, but he makes more mistakes than his wages are worth. But all the time he is learning things that may be of great value to him.

HE SHOULD REFLECT THAT A BUSINESS TRAINING MUST BE PAID FOR AS WELL AS A SCHOLASTIC ONE.

A position in which good pay can be earned at the start is not apt to lead to anything much higher. The size of the salary is a sign that the work is too easy to learn, and that it leads to no further advancement.

PERSONAL LIBERTY

The fact is that no man in any condition of society ever has been born absolutely free or ever can be. He is born like the bee, subject to the law of the hive. To be born free in the sense of the defenders of free alcohol would be to be born independent of law of any kind, which, as the books on geometry say, is absurd. The distinction between good government and bad government, between liberty and license, between freedom and repression, is not the existence of restrictions, but their nature. The very law, which, for instance, permits a man the free use of alcohol, limits his right to abuse the privilege. He may get drunk in private but not publicly; he may fuddle his so-called intelligence but he must not resort to physical violence; he may smash his own belongings so long as he respects the property of his neighbor and of the state. . . . Now these restrictions are arbitrary and artificial. Why should it be legitimate for a man to wreck the lives of his wife and children and illegitimate to break his aunt's decanters or his cousin's whiskey bottles? Why should it be forbidden to him to throw a stone through a pane of glass belonging to the state and permit to him not merely to render useless his own ability for labor, which is the most valuable asset the state possesses, but even to impose himself as a charge upon the state?—Christian Science Monitor.

TWO ALLIED WARSHIPS SUNK BY TORPEDOES

PARIS, June 26.—The minister of marine announced that the Italian auxiliary cruiser Citta di Messina and the French torpedo boat destroyer Fouché, have been torpedoed in the Strait of Otranto.

The Citta di Messina, which was being escorted by the Fouché, was the first victim of the submarine. The Fouché later attacked the underwater boat, which submerged and disappeared. Shortly afterwards the Fouché herself was torpedoed. Almost all of her crew was saved.

MIDSHIPMAN DIES IN THREE-STORY JUMP

ANNAPOLIS, June 26.—Midshipman William B. Durkin, 17 years old, of West Pittston, Pa., fell or jumped from the window of his room on the third floor of the midshipmen's barracks, receiving injuries which caused his death. The authorities said the youth was alone at the time and that he had been despondent.

Everybody likes good salt rising bread, but few can bake it. Our salt rising bread is baked on Tuesdays and Fridays. All agree that it is excellent. W. D. Baker, 214 W. Fourth St.

WHAT IS THIS MONSTER

from the San Bernardino News

I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world.
I have destroyed more men than all the wars of the nations.
I am more deadly than bullets, and I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest siege guns.
I steal, in the United States alone, over $300,000,000 each year.
I spare no one, and I find my victims among the rich and poor alike, the young and old, the strong and the weak. Widows and orphans know me.
I loom up to such proportions that I cast my shadow over every field of labor, from the turning of the grindstone to the moving of every railroad train.

I massacre thousands upon thousands of wage-earners a year.
I lurk in unseen places and do most of my work silently. You are warned against me, but you heed not.

I am relentless.
I am everywhere—in the house, on the street, in the factory, at railroad crossings, and on the sea.

I bring sickness, degradation and death, and yet few seek to avoid me.
I destroy, crush and maim; I give nothing, but take all.
I am your worst enemy.

Answer—"I am carelessness."

MORE HYPHENATED—YES, MORE!

The writer of these lines is a "More Hyphenated," and these are the hyphens: American-German-French-English-American. That is more than the editor of the Register can boast; for you see the first term indicates birth, the following terms lineage and the last citizenship and loyalty.

The writer must agree with your "Hyphenated" of Thursday, concerning all this fuss about a poor, little innocent punctuation mark.

According to your own editorial comment, it was not that poor little hyphen, but "allegiance" which the fuss is all about. Then why do the papers fill their columns with such stuff as "There must be no more German-Americans," "The hyphen must go, etc." Let us call a spade a spade.

Certainly no man is made more loyal to this country by telling him not to lisp the country of his birth. If he is a man he will shout it the more loudly.

And now as to true loyalty, true allegiance, are there not plenty of native Americans—spell it with a little "a"—who ought to hide their heads for very shame for their disloyalty? To illustrate, let me call attention to the letters of Col. Finley and the Monrovia man in Thursday's Register. Would that there were more to stand by our government as Col. Finley loyally does.

The writer of this is so truly American as to be unable to belong to any political party. Why? Because these parties, as such, are bent on smashing one another, regardless of the interests of true American ideals. Therefore one must needs vote for the MAN who will most nearly uphold these ideals, regardless of party. No true American will vote "My party, right or wrong." No truly loyal American will assail other political parties for the sole purpose of making political capital for his own party. Yet there are plenty of such hyphenates. They are American-Republicans, American-Democrats, American-Progressives, American-Socialists, etc. TO PARTY they have sworn allegiance. Their birth-place is America. Down with such hyphenates! Give us more of the other variety, who scorn DOMINATION of any kind.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

Dying Out

The birth rate of this country, as regards the public prints, does not keep up with the death rate.

Exact figures are not at hand, but if this sort of thing should continue indefinitely, the man who writes for a living may have to go around with a bucket of paste and glue his stuff to the bill boards.

The world will be a strange and lonesome place when the palladium of our liberties has ceased to do business at the old stand.

Lack of Exactitude

"Evangelists will wind up Sunday." Meaning to quit? Seems more like running down.

Going Some

Flammarion takes his eye from the telescope long enough to announce that the sidereal system travels through space at the rate of 22,500,000 miles a minute.

If this is true, there seems to be nothing to do but to felicitate ourselves on the capaciousness of space. Also, the thought arises that were one accidentally to step out of the system he would have to hustle to overtake it.

Top Heavy

A Los Angeles paper with a quotation from Joaquin Miller engraved in its heading, presents it this way: "Sail on, sail on, sail on, and on, and on, and on."

Better consult the old poem. The paper is carrying too much sail.

Being a Gentleman

A husband declined to give his wife a seat on a street car, or to permit a male friend who accompanied him to do so.

However, the impulse of almost any full grown male in the circumstances would be to be a gentleman even at the cost of a row with that sort of a husband.

Lucky Lyman

A fellow named Lyman, recently convicted in New York of swindling people to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars, has been sentenced to prison for eighteen months. Previously he had been convicted in California of a similar offense, and given a sentence, which he somewhat haughtily declined to serve.

It is lucky for the estimable financier that he did not, under the impulse of hunger, steal a ham.

Advantages

Because a woman denounced America as crude, and declined to live here, choosing London instead, her husband has been granted a divorce. Doubtless this country is crude, but up to the present it has dared to keep its lights burning at night, and is not acquiring stiff neck by visual scouting for Zeppelins.

Diversion

Recently in court one lawyer said earnestly, "The man who wrote that is a liar." The opposing lawyer replied, "I wrote it." "Biff! Bang!" A straight with the left, and a right uppercut. No Blackstone, no Coke, but plenty of Queensbury.

Once in a while the spectator does find that loading about the tribunal of justice is diverting.

Go to It

Dr. Woods Hutchinson wants to know why we should not eat insects. He may eat them if he desires. Honestly, they don't look good to us.

Why Not Fight AND Pray

WASHINGTON, June 26.—A minister of the gospel who will either "fight or pray," in which ever capacity he is most needed in time of war, has offered his services to Major General George W. Barnett, commandant of the United States Marine Corps. He is Reverend Ferdinand F. Schultz, pastor of the Church of Christ & Disciples, Chillicothe, Ohio—a practical engineer as well as minister.

In offering his services the Rev. Schultz expressed willingness to serve in the fire-room of a battleship, or as chaplain of marines in the field.

The patriotic and versatile Ohio pastor is 57 years of age, but says he is hale and hearty and ready to respond to a call to serve "Old Glory" at any time.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Miss Hattie Anderson Honored at Pretty Party Given By Miss Erma Lee

One of the pretty end-of-the-week social affairs was the miscellaneous shower given on Saturday afternoon by Miss Erma Lee of 1018 Van Ness avenue, honoring Miss Hattie Anderson, who will soon become a bride.

The rooms were aglow with red, the flowers being dahlias, carnations and gladioli, and hearts and cupid were paraded about in honor of the occasion.

The time was happily spent crocheting for the popular bride-elect, and there were games played with candy hearts and music, rendered by Miss Jane Stanley.

The gifts were presented to Miss Anderson in a huge basket, the packages being hidden with a covering of flowers. She disclosed many useful and pretty articles.

Delicious refreshments were served on trays, the favors being clusters of lovely red sweet peas. Miss Lee was assisted during the afternoon by her sister, Miss Ursula Lee.

The guest list included besides the hostesses and honoree, the following: Misses Jane Stanley, Albia Smart, Annis Snow, Ruth Inwood, Fern Smith, Stella Anderson, Clara Willis, Thelma Clark and Mrs. Hershel Clayton.

HEAR ANNUAL REPORTS

Last Ebell Meeting of Year Interesting, Music, Mrs. Goldsmith Reviews Books

The Ebell Society held its last meeting for the season at Elks' hall on Saturday afternoon, with an unusually large attendance of members and guests.

The business meeting was given over chiefly to the annual reports, among those of greatest interest being the report of the general curator, Mrs. J. E. Gowen, and that of Mrs. E. M. Nealley, chairman of the Day Nursery committee.

Mrs. M. V. Budrow, accompanied by Mrs. Albin J. Padgham, gave two charming solos.

Mrs. Lillian Burkhardt Goldsmith, whose appearance before the Ebell is always a matter of particular rejoicing, was to have given her delightful review of five recent books and plays, but through some unfortunate combination of circumstances, it was considered necessary for her to shorten her program, and she found time left for only two. The first was Olive Schreier's "Angel Island," a fantastic whimsical and altogether enjoyable book, which Mrs. Goldsmith condensed and reviewed in her own most delightful and inimitable way. This was followed by an intensely dramatic and forceful review of Galsworthy's "Mob."

At 4:30 the Ebell adjourned, and journeyed to the home of Mrs. A. J. Crookshank on French street, where a most enjoyable lawn fete brought the year's work and play to a fitting close. The beautiful grounds of the Crookshank home afforded a lovely setting for the animated scene and several hundred club women and their guests enjoyed on hour over the tea-cups and the refreshment tables, where dainty ices and cakes were served. The affair was in charge of the Ebell entertainment committee, consisting of Mrs. George Balderston, chairman, and Mesdames J. E. Paul, Howard Wassum, J. E. Liebig, J. W. McCormack, John Wehrly, Charles Kelley, Max Reinhaus and W. H. Smith.

A bevy of daintily gowned young girls, attractive daughters of the club, served tea, and generally assisted in adding to the afternoon's gaiety. Their number included Misses Marie Briggs, Margaret Lyon, Mary Jo Grubb, Louise Grubb, Helen Carden, Irma Reinhaus, Margaret Robertson and Doris Robinson.

W. C. T. U. Meeting
The Santa Ana W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the First Presbyterian church. Reports from the recent state convention will be given and a good attendance is desired as this will be the last meeting before vacation.

U. D. C. to Meet
Emma Samson Chapter, U. D. C., will hold a meeting on next Tuesday, with Mrs. H. W. Head at 1516 West First street at 2:30 p. m.

Planning Michigan Picnic
The committee to make arrangements for the Orange County Michigan picnic to be held at Birch Park on July 11, at the home of E. E. Cooley Saturday and elected the following committees:

Speakers and Program—E. S. Palmer of Orange and E. O. Shaw and E. E. Cooley of Santa Ana.

Music—F. J. Haynes and Alberta Cooley of Santa Ana and Mrs. E. J. Brown of Orange.

Every representative of the grand Shaw and Mrs. Laura Carr of Santa Ana.

Every representative of the grand old city is requested to take notice and be on hand with well-filled basket and the committee will promise the time of your life.

Misses Lucy Hill, Maude R. Jones, Mary Adelle Jones, Esther Gowdy and Nellie Clingan, Santa Ana teachers, left here yesterday to attend a six weeks' summer school in the mountains near Fresno. They were joined in Los Angeles by Miss Josie Curren.

The summer school is under the direction of the Fresno Normal, with Berkeley teachers.

The place chosen for the school is an ideal summer resort and the teachers are looking forward with pleasure to the outing.

Rainbow Club Meeting
The Rainbow Club met at the home of Miss Adeline Cochems at 407 East Pine street, Saturday afternoon. The time was pleasantly spent in fancy work, music and games.

Refreshments of orangeade, sandwiches and cookies were served by Mrs. Cochems.

Those present were Misses Adeline Cochems, Lula Brady, Sarah Sebastian, Lois Sweet, Nellie Sheets and Gladys Prevost.

The two visitors were Mrs. Elliott and daughter, Audrey Elliott, of Los Angeles.

COPIES OF BULLETINS
The California Highway bulletin, dated July 1, is being mailed by the State Highway Commission to supervisors and other county officials, municipal officers, librarians and chambers of commerce. It will be mailed free to any person who may write to the California Highway Commission, Forum Building, Sacramento, for a copy.

The bulletin contains a report of state highway work and expenditures and projects.

LICENSED TO WED
A marriage license was issued in Los Angeles Saturday to Marvin B. Tomblin, 25, and Anna M. Puchert, 20, both of Anaheim.

FOUND IN HOUSE
A stranger who gives his name as W. D. Gerald entered J. V. Sutton's home at West Orange Saturday while the family was away. A neighbor telephoned to the sheriff, and Jackson went to the place and got the man, who had disturbed nothing in the house. The man said he was looking for a glass with which to drink. He had a bottle of alcohol in his pocket.

CLAIM IS MADE THAT SALVAGE SHOULD BE AWARDED

Further Details of Diversion
Plan and Arguments Are Now Presented

Assertion Is Made That the Project Will Work
Conservation

The petition of W. L. Hole and E. L. Veuve of Los Angeles for a permit to divert the entire surface flow of the Santa Ana River in order to secure salvage for irrigation of Rancho la Sierra, near Riverside, has created much interest among irrigators in this country. The report as published in the Register last week explained the plan of those who have filed the petition, and further the statement was made that the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company and the Anaheim Union Water Company would oppose the granting of 850 inches salvage asked for by Hole and Veuve.

Further information as to the arguments that have been made and the plan of diversion as presented to the State Water Commission have been received by the Register. The Santa Ana River is somewhat peculiar in many respects and the flood flow in the river during the winter time is entirely different from the stream which flows in the channel during the summer months. The water flowing during the summer really has no connection with the river at all. It is water which seeps into the river channel from underground sources and after the gravels of the channel are filled rises to the surface and flows as a surface stream. As you doubtless know the river above Riverside is entirely dry during the summer time and water appears in the channel only a short distance above the West Riverside Bridge. From there down the stream, however, to the intake of the water company there is a constantly flowing stream.

Statement Is Made
Following is a short extract from the statement of Hole and Veuve to the Water Commission, which gives a very good idea of the manner in which they propose to make a salvage:

"It is not sufficient in considering the Santa Ana River to think of it as a flowing stream meandering through the valley from the mountains to the sea, nor is it sufficient to think of it as having the ordinary character of the usual stream of the arid or semi-arid regions, which consists of a flood channel over which the winter floods flow in considerable volume and then gradually diminish to a small trickling stream which finally disappears entirely into the sands of the river channel. Instead, in considering the river, it is necessary to think of the different features already described. First there is the San Bernardino Basin, which acts as a huge underground lake or reservoir into which the mountain territory discharges its waters. Some of the flood waters, of course, flow directly across the basin and on down the river, but other than this the water is caught and held within the basin. Then there is the sand filled trough cut through the alluvium overlying the granite plateau and extending down stream from this great reservoir and sealed in the lower end by the lava blanket. The trough is divided into three distinct basins, the middle one of which is almost entirely inclosed within the granite rock. There is the channel through the Lower Canyon and across the Coastal Plain to the ocean. Here the usual characteristics ordinarily pertaining to streams in the semi-arid regions are to be found.

"The difference between the flood or winter flow and the summer flow should also be borne clearly in mind. The distinction only applies, so far as we are concerned, to the river trough extending from the Colton Dike to the Santa Fe Bridge and which acts as a large drainage ditch for the entire surrounding territory. The flood flow is the run-off from the mountains during the rainy season which flows across the San Bernardino Basin and on down through the trough. The gravels of the trough are kept filled by the inflow of the underground waters and so the flood flow passes over the gravels. Any unfilled voids which may at times exist in the gravels are filled from the winter flow. The summer flow, however, is quite a different thing. As already explained it is caused by the excess of the inflow of the underground waters from the territory below the Colton Dike over the amount required for evaporation and transpiration in the river bottom.

Proposed Salvage

"The water sought to be appropriated under Application No. 74 is to be secured mainly from the flood or winter flow of the river. Instead of conveying the flood waters away from the river and storing in one or more reservoirs until used, it is proposed to convert the gravels of the river channel into a storage reservoir and to store therein a limited portion of the annual flood or winter flow of the river. The water will be stored in the gravels during the winter time and drained out again during the following summer, and it is this stored winter flow, together with such salvage water as may be secured from decreased evaporation, and any increased flow of return irrigation waters that we desire to appropriate. In order to store the flood waters in the gravels of the river channel and to draw them out again during the following summer, it is proposed:

"First—To construct across the Santa Ana River at the Narrows a submerged dam or curtain wall extending from bed rock to the level of the ground in the river channel.
"Second—To reconstruct the old Riverside Power Canal with a minimum carrying capacity of 5,000 inches.
"Third—To divert the entire flow of the river above the dam into the canal during the low water period which extends from about May to November inclusive and to convey the river flow through the canal to the Power House and there return it to the river channel.
"Fourth—By means of the dam and diversion during the summer of the entire river flow above the dam to thereby shut off all water from entering the gravels of the river bed immediately below the dam.
"Fifth—To allow the water contained within the gravels of the river bed immediately below the dam to drain out during the time the river flow is diverted through the canal.
"Sixth—To allow the winter flow of the river to flow over the gravels thus drained, thereby refilling these gravels to their capacity from the flood flow of the river.
"We claim that by carrying out the operations above outlined that the summer flow of the river below the Power House will be greater, by 850 inches, than it is under the present conditions. If such should prove to be the case we are entitled to take the 850 inches and use it upon our lands. This amount of water would be taken from the canal before being returned to the river and the amount returned to the river plus the amount drained from the gravels above, would be the amount that would ordinarily flow in the river at that point under present conditions."

Veuve's Letter
The following is taken from a letter which Engineer Veuve wrote to the Water Commission:

"In regard to the conditions along the river bottom between Riverside and the mouth of the lower canyon above Santa Ana, we think there can be no question in regard to the following facts:

"First—That since about 1880 there has been a large and fairly constant increase in the summer flow of the stream.

"Second—That this has been accompanied by a rise in the ground water level in the bottom lands along the river, old cultivated fields have been drowned out and made fit for pasture only.

"Third—That both of these conditions have been caused by the return water from the irrigation of bench lands draining into the river, in other words, that extensive irrigation has tended to somewhat equalize the difference between the low water flow and the flood flow from the drainage area taken as a whole.

"In addition to these three changes in conditions we claim that there has been:

"First—A large increase in the evaporation loss along the river bottom lands.

"Second—Less storage of flood waters in the sand and gravels of the river bottom lands.

Decreased Losses
The net result of these changes from the natural conditions has been an increase in the amount of water available for use during the summer or low water period. We claim that still more water can be made available by creating conditions which will decrease the losses above stated.

"Above Riverside the entire summer flow of the river is now diverted into lined conduits and the ground water held down by means of drainage galleries and pumping plants. We believe that in time this will be done throughout the entire length of the river. The surface flow will be diverted at suitable places into lined conduits and the bottom lands drained. This will result in the saving of a large amount of water now lost by evaporation and will also largely increase the underground storage from flood flows, making this water available for use during the summer. It is acknowledged that the flow of the Santa Ana River is used over again more times than any other stream in the West. This use can be still further increased and it is our wish to build the necessary works to make this conservation for the section of the river bottom between the Narrows and the Power House and to use the water so salvaged on adjacent lands which are now without an available water supply.

"We do not think that anyone can question but what there would be some salvage if the entire surface and underground flow was diverted at the Narrows, carried through the power canal, and returned to the natural channel at the Power House. Anything which would lower the water plane along this section of the river bottom and constrict the exposed surface of the stream, would lessen the evaporation. Also anything which would increase the drainage from the gravels during the summer would increase the storage for the winter floods. Our plan would do both. The water we would use would be replaced for the use of the lower appropriators by the waters so salvaged. We would not use the salvage water directly, but would borrow water along the line of the canal, replacing it at the Power House with the salvage water. The saving of evaporation loss would be made at the same time that the water was being used, but the draft from the stored water would be from that stored during the previous winter and would be replaced again during the following winter.

Trying it Out
"The only possible way to get at the exact amount of salvage which can be made in this way is by trying it out. We believe that it will be at least 850 inches for the reason given in our previous statement, but can only expect to be able to prove to the Commission that there is a reasonable certainty that we can secure an amount of water worth while. We feel sure enough to be willing to go to the expense of constructing the works and all we ask is the privilege of proving the amount of salvage which can be made. Measurements made along the river show that a salvage can be made. The measurements, however, are so limited and the conditions under which they were made were such that the amount of salvage to be expected cannot be determined by them alone. A theoretical calculation, with the limited data available, can only show the amount which can reasonably be expected. But by comparing the two an amount is determined which it seems reasonably certain is the amount that can be secured.

"In case the Commission finally decides to grant this application, we expect that it will be granted subject to such limitations and conditions as are necessary to protect the lower appropriators. If they are not satisfied with the rulings of the Commission on this matter, it will be necessary for them to prove in a contest before the Commission or the courts that they are, or will be, damaged by our proposed works. To decide this matter it may be necessary for the Commission to determine the amount of water they are entitled to. We anticipate no opposition, unless it might be on the part of the Anaheim Union Water Co., and the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Co.

"We do not hold with these companies 'That all the water, both surface and subterranean, of the Santa Ana River, its springs, sources and tributaries, and all waters, both surface and subterranean, flowing through the Santa Ana Canyon and down the channel and bed of said river, within the County of Orange, shall be and are owned in equal parts, and shall be equally divided between the parties hereto.'"

NESBITT WILL GO TO PRISON. NO PROBATION

Judge W. H. Thomas and Rev.
William Thomas Give Up
Hope of Getting Bond

George Nesbitt will be sentenced to prison next Friday morning. There is now little question but that a $3000 bond cannot be secured. Rev. William Thomas, pastor of the Baptist Church of Garden Grove, whose daughter was killed by the automobile that Nesbitt drove, has given up hope of getting the bond signed up. He went out among the people of Garden Grove, and failed to get a single signature. Judge W. H. Thomas has also given up expectation that the bond will be raised.

On Friday or before, if the defendant wishes, he will be committed to San Quentin for ten years. Judge Thomas will immediately set before Governor Johnson the situation, and will tell the governor that the sentence was fixed at ten years with the expectation that there would be probation, but without probation the judge will ask that the sentence be commuted to six years.

"I found sentiment against the young man to be too great," said Rev. Thomas. "It is a matter of satisfaction to me, however, to know, as I do know, that it was not the death of my daughter that is causing this young man to be sent to prison. The manner of her death served to bring to a head the young man's past life, and it is his own record previous to the tragedy and since it that prevents the raising of the bond at Garden Grove. I am very sorry indeed that the young man will have to go to the penitentiary. However, I have done everything I could to raise the bond, and it is my opinion that it cannot be secured."

Last Saturday Judge Thomas in a public statement said that he would himself sign the bond, and in response to his call twelve Santa Anans notified the judge that they would be willing to go on the bond, if necessary. Rev. Thomas at Garden Grove failed to get an additional signature.

Thirty signers were required under the probation order, each to be held liable for the payment of $100 to the county should Nesbitt break his bond. It is not the fear of the loss of $100 apiece that is keeping the people from signing the bond," said Rev. Thomas. "It is the young man's own record."

The attitude of Nesbitt toward the entire matter seems to have cut some figure in the sentiment against him. When called as a witness at the examination, Postmaster F. C. Thompson of Garden Grove was asked if he believed that Nesbitt would keep his probation if he got it. Thompson answered that he did not believe he would. When Nesbitt was taken back to jail he told the jailer that when he got out about the first thing he would do would be to go into the post office and tell Thompson what he thought of him. Thompson says that he was asked a straight question and under oath gave an honest answer, and has no apologies to offer for it.

When the petition asking probation for Nesbitt was circulated at Garden Grove some of the vital points brought out at the hearing in court were not known to the signers of the petition.

Suit for Partition

Lewis H. F. Evans has brought suit against his sister, Eliza Evans Fairchild, for the partition of a ranch near Garden Grove. Evans alleges that he inherited a quarter interest in the ranch and was deeded the half interest of his mother. This latter deed was the subject of a suit recently, which suit was won by Evans. He asks that the court decree how much he shall receive for improvements put upon the place, and that partition be ordered as between him and his sister, and in relation to a mortgage held by J. G. Vrydag.

Names Deputy

Constable Coleman has appointed E. H. Nett as a deputy.

Sent to Prison

This morning William Burns, an convict, was sentenced to five years in San Quentin for burglarizing a packing house at Orange. Burns was arrested after a fight with trainmen at Orange. Judge West pronounced sentence. Burns pleaded guilty to the charge.

Hewitt, 32, Arcadia; J. B. Summer, 39, Los Angeles, and Anna M. Stearns, 34, Boston; Wm. H. Borwick, 25, Arcadia, and Leona Ellington, 25, Azusa; Harry J. Enz, 21, and Ethelwyn J. Wells, 18, both Los Angeles; Elijah J. Henry, 36, and Nora Stevens, 39, both Los Angeles; Willard W. Welsh, 22, Chicago, and Marielle Overstreet, 19, Kansas City.

Judgment Entered

Judgment for $1339 has been entered in favor of the German American Bank of Anaheim against F. C. Spencer, signer of a note, and Leora E. Newcombe, who was surety upon the note.

Answer is Filed

An answer has been filed in the action brought by William Dodge against J. Herzkopf to compel the defendant to carry out an agreement to trade the J. R. Smith place on North Main street for Los Angeles property. The answer alleges that in order to get the agreement signed the defendant was shown a lease on the Los Angeles property showing that the property is leased for $90 a month. It is stated that as a matter of fact the property rented for but $50.

Attachment Cases

An attachment has been recorded in an action brought by Stern & Goodman Company of Fullerton against J. W. Johnson on a demand for $616. Land at Yorba Linda is attached.

Other property at Yorba Linda has been attached in connection with an action brought by the Placentia National Bank against George E. Quigley, suit being for $299.

NOTE DEMANDING THAT U. S. TROOPS BE FREED TAKES FIRM STAND

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The note that has been dispatched to Mexico City by Secretary of State Lansing to Carranza's request for an explanation of the Carrizal affair, first quoting the text of the Mexican note, says that the United States "can put no other construction upon the communication" of the de facto "than that it is intended as a formal avowal of deliberately hostile action against the forces of the United States now in Mexico and of the purpose to attack them without provocation whenever they move from their present position in pursuance of the objects for which they were sent there, notwithstanding the fact that those objects not only involve no unfriendly intention towards the government and people of Mexico, but are, on the contrary, intended only to assist the government in protecting itself and the territory and people of the United States against irresponsible and insurgent bands of rebel marauders."

"I am instructed, therefore, by my government to demand the immediate release of the prisoners taken in the encounter at Carrizal, together with any property of the United States taken with them, and to inform you that the government of the United States expects an early statement from your government as to the course of action it wishes the United States to understand it has determined upon, and that it also expects that this statement be made through the usual diplomatic channels and not through subordinate military commanders."

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

WINTERSBURG MAN SENTENCED TO JAIL FOR SALE OF BOOZE

Saturday night Under Sheriff Iman and Deputy Eells arrested Francisco Rodriguez of Wintersburg for selling liquor. This morning the man pleaded guilty to two charges. He was sentenced by Justice Cox to 100 days upon one charge and thirty days upon the other.

Threatens to Kill

This morning Marcos Fuentes was given a six months sentence for striking Mrs. M. Guadalupe upon the head with an iron bar. The woman was in the county hospital for a time, and when she returned home the man was seen hanging around the house. He was then arrested upon a charge involving the blow upon her head. When the man was being taken to jail after sentence he is reported to have said that he would kill the woman when he gets out of jail.

MEXICANS APPLAUD SHERIFF'S ADVICE TO OBEY THE LAWS

Saturday night Sheriff Jackson of Santa Ana and City Marshal Farrar of Orange went to El Modena, where a dance was in progress, and the sheriff made a short talk to the Spanish-speaking people who were present, in which he told the Mexicans that they would be protected if they obeyed the laws. Copies of a notice in Spanish to that effect were left at the place. The sheriff's remarks were applauded.

"I am satisfied that the Mexicans as a rule ask nothing except peace," said Jackson. "Many of the Spanish-speaking people here are not Mexicans. Some of them were born here, and their fathers and grandfathers were born here. They are good, loyal citizens, and since they speak Spanish some of them are doing a good deal to satisfy the Mexicans as to the real situation, and are advising them rightly."

110 ADDED TO SPECIAL L. A. POLICE FORCE

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—The police preparedness policy yesterday resulted in the calling to the Central Station of 125 men who have applied for work as special policemen.

Sergeant Richard Hill and Drillmaster E. E. Brown examined each applicant. A brief physical survey of the candidates was made and then the record of each man taken.

It was found that more than a score had honorable discharges from the army or navy and fifty-four had previously served as peace officers.

One hundred and ten were taken on the list for reserve duty and will be ready to respond to calls day or night. The new men will receive $3 a day remuneration and will be used if there is need for many more policemen to be sent to San Pedro for strike duty if the Mexican situation demands men for riot duty.

So far, the police say, the large Mexican population here has been maintaining strict order and giving the officers no extra work. The police, however, are ready for an outbreak, having thirty plain-clothes men stationed in and around the Plaza Park and as many more, armed with shotguns, constantly on reserve at the police station.

COMPULSION ACT OF BRITAIN IN FORCE TODAY

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, June 24.—Great Britain today became a nation of militarism.

All but a negligible quantity of male Britons between the ages of 18 and 41 today automatically became soldiers for the duration of the war under the military compulsion act. They are the army of reserve and will become trained units as fast as the military authorities can put them through the necessary steps.

It is estimated that upwards of 600,000 are thus added to the military forces. Between 350,000 and 400,000 are youths under nineteen. The remainder is divided between married and single men who have held back mainly for family or business reasons. Beginning today every man walking the streets or highways of Great Britain, excluding Ireland, is subject to challenge by a police constable and must produce his certificate of military exemption forthwith or face the consequences.

But few are free under the compulsion act. Total exemption is openly granted only to clergymen, exchanged prisoners of war and the medically unfit. From today onward, for thirty days, hundreds of tribunals throughout the country will consider the last applications for exemption. It has been previously announced that absolute freedom from military service cannot be granted to those pleading "serious hardship." Hence the tradesman must leave his shop, the professional man his office, the manufacturer his plant and the husband his home despite business or domestic hardship.

The conscientious objector, if his objections are proved genuine to the satisfaction of the tribunal, must serve in a noncombatant capacity. Even the government employee must prove that his services are indispensable to the nation.

British railway stations, especially those of the larger cities, took on a new aspect today. More women and children crowded the platforms than ever before. It was like a Sunday school picnic except tears and good-byes took the place of laughter and joy. The first drafts of the conscript army started toward the training camps.

FULLERTON DAY PROVES A BIG SUCCESS

Estimated That 3000 People
Attended Big Booster
Celebration

FULLERTON, June 26.—Three thousand persons were entertained here Saturday with a "Fullerton Day" program which began at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and lasted until midnight. The events of the day were ushered in by a funeral for the hammer, emblematic of the knocker, and four score business men, who closed the doors of their establishments for an hour, formed the funeral escort. In the evening a block of the main thoroughfare was roped off for a street dance which lasted until midnight. Two teams from the local fire department competed in an exciting water fight.
